

USHL RoughRiders tender Ivan Provorov

RidertownUSA - March 15, 2013

The USHL RoughRiders are pleased to announce the acquisition of defenseman Ivan Provorov of the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Jr. Knights of the Atlantic Youth Hockey League through the United States Hockey League tender process.

Provorov, a native of Yaroslavl, Russia is a 6'-190lbs left shot who recorded 12 goals and 20 assists in 22 games for the Knights as they completed a perfect 26-0 season. Provorov was awarded the All American Defensive Award given to the Atlantic Youth Hockey League top defenseman.

"The RoughRiders are excited to have Ivan join our club. We would like to thank the Jr. Knights organization for their assistance during this process. We are looking forward to working with Ivan to help him reach his goals on and off the ice as he contributes to our team. Ivan is a person of high character, work ethic and ability and will be an asset to the Cedar Rapids RoughRiders" said RoughRiders President, Head Coach and General Manager Mark Carlson.
